that you keep current. And that's how I would read the two sections together.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, thank you. Thank you, Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. On the discussion, Senator Bromm, on the amendment to the committee amendments. Senator Bromm, I'm sorry. Senator Brown, I'm sorry, Senator Brown.

SENATOR BROWN: Thank you, Mr. President. Members, I would just...I just have to put in my two cents worth. That we seem to be able to...to put in place requirements for certain kinds of professions, and not that I disagree that this is a profession that I would...would want not to be as...as up-to-date as possible on...on the most current issues affecting valuations, but I think that there are other professions that I feel the same way about. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jones, on the Wickersham amendment to the committee amendments.

SENATOR JONES: Thank you, President and members of the body. I just want to talk just a little bit about the TERC board and I understand that this might make some changes in the qualifications of it. So I'd like to ask Senator Wickersham a couple questions, if I could.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Would you respond, Senator Wickersham?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR JONES: Does this change it enough so that they will be changed, the three that's on there now, or how...how is that going to affect the ones that's actually on the TERC board right now?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: I'm not sure that...I don't know whether they meet the qualifications or not but they certainly, if they don't currently meet the qualifications, they would be given the opportunity to meet the qualifications. So it isn't...and I
